Ministries Within Dai Mission Ministries

Initially Dai Mission Ministries began as a collection of believers from various faiths to discover the truth behind the Scriptures, a quest pursued to this day, with emphasis on the true meaning and intent of the original source writings of the Torah, the Tanakh, the New Covenant Scriptures, and Apocryphal texts. Through working with other seminaries and yeshivas it is the intention of the Ministries to establish its own yeshiva in the future, recognized by its seminary partners, to train and later ordain ministers in the various forms of the Messianic Jewish faith. This yeshiva will be the cornerstone of the kibbutz of Goshen, CO which is meant to be the end road project of the various Messianic Unions established.

Through the Messianic Unions throughout the western states, Dai Mission Ministries seeks to bring unity amongst the various congregations, small groups, and evangelistic ministries of the Messianic and Hebraic Roots faith and host local area conferences upon the monthly or quarterly Erev Shabbat or Shabbat gatherings chosen by the Elder over your local Messianic Union. Services are open to all to provide an avenue for fellowship and provide a venue for future believers interested in becoming more familiar with the Messianic path of faith. These conference services typically open with an oneg meal, followed by corporate prayers, music worship, dance, and finish with either an accomplished speaker or an open Midrash. For Feast Holidays, Dai Mission Ministries hosts organizational level services for the feasts of Pesach (Passover), Shavuot (Pentecost), and Sukkot (Tabernacles). For the other Hebraic holidays the local Unions work with local congregations to organize intercongregational celebrations.
